

AUSTRALASIAN INSTITUTE OF MARINE SURVEYORS

APPLICATION FOR STUDENT MEMBERSHIP

Probationary Membership - Student

This membership category is intended for a person who is undertaking training as a marine surveyor or related studies such as Engineering or Master Class 5 or higher but do not yet satisfy the requirements for a full Probationary Member.

To be eligible you must be undertaking study or training at an Australian maritime institution or a higher education institution delivering maritime courses and qualifications or an Australian Registered Training Organisation delivering marine surveyor or maritime qualifications related to surveying. Student Members are eligible to receive the Institute’s Newsletters and all other publications and are entitled to attend (as non voting members) at all Institute meetings. Student members are encouraged to participate in discussions, and will receive the same discounts to Industry Seminars and Conferences as other Institute Members.

No Proposer and Secunder are required for Applicants, but acceptance as a Student Member, based on the information supplied and otherwise available to the Executive, is solely at the discretion of the Institute’s Executive.

The normal Application Fee of $150 is waived for Student Members until such time they are entitled and apply to upgrade to Associate or Full Membership. Student Members are required to pay an Annual Membership of $100 (or pro-rata as determined by the Treasurer) in advance, and will be issued with a student membership certificate.

Applicants are invited to supply as much detail as possible relevant to their planned course of development to establish themselves in their chosen profession.
